MEMORANDUM TO:

Mr. Richard M. Helms
Director
Central Intelligence Agency

The Secret Service has recently made a change in its Special Agent identification and a new badge has been issued to its agent personnel. The badge has been inserted in a leather carrying case which also contains the Secret Service commission book. The Secret Service badges are numbered, the commission books do not contain a serial number.

I regret to say that within the short time since the new credentials have been issued, a set issued to Special Agent Jerry E. McKinney, badge No. 850, was stolen in a burglary in Arlington, Virginia, and has not been recovered. The existence of this set of credentials in the hands of an unauthorized person is of serious concern to us.

I am enclosing a photograph of these credentials for your information.
